

Barnes Wendling Valuation Group Adds Two Analysts

The Directors of Barnes Wendling are pleased to announce that Craig T. Hickey, was hired as a Senior Analyst and Adnan Qureshi was hired as an Analyst for Barnes Wendling Valuation Services, Inc..

Craig Hickey comes to us from Stout Risius Ross, Inc. and, as a Senior Analyst, his specialization includes the valuation of privately owned operating companies, intangible assets, and stock options, as well as financial modeling. A 2005 graduate of The Ohio State University (B.S.B.A. in Finance, cum laude), Craig serves as a Director for the Ohio State University Alumni Club of Greater Cleveland and is also involved with Young ACG of Cleveland. He is also a candidate for the Level II Chartered Financial Analyst (CFA) exam in June 2011.

Adnan Qureshi moved from Chicago to join Barnes Wendling Valuation Services as an Analyst. Adnan has over two years of professional experience, spending the majority of that time performing tasks related to the business and intangible asset valuation. Prior to joining Barnes Wendling, he was a valuation associate with Deloitte. His areas of specialization include the valuation of privately held companies as well as economic and industry specific research and analysis. Qureshi earned a dual-degree from the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign with a Bachelor of Science in both Finance and Accountancy. On campus, he served as a senior member of the Alpha Kappa Psi Professional Business Fraternity. He is currently a candidate member of American Society of Appraisers.

We are happy to share that both Hickey and Qureshi are residents of downtown Cleveland.
